WHERE HE STANDS

I stand for Americanism which knows no ulterior purpose, for a patriotism which is single and complete, whether native or naturalized, of whatever race or creed. We have but one country, and we do not for an instant tolerate any division of allegiance.—Charles E. Hughes in his letter of acceptance.

MANCHESTER DEPOT

W. W. Pratt is very ill.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hewes were visiting friends and relatives in town the last of the week.

W. C. Stevens has sold out his business here. The personal property was disposed of by auction on Tuesday.

The Rebekah district meeting held on Tuesday evening of this week, under the direction of Mrs. Orrie Covey, D. D. G. P., was a success and was well attended.

Tax collector Herbert Johnson has the list of delinquent tax payers in his hands and may be seen quietly riding about town gathering in the various amounts due the town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rich and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bennett went to Comstock Landing, Fort Edward and several other nearby New York towns last Sunday in Mr. Rich's Buick.

There will be a grange rally at the next regular meeting of Battenkill Valley Grange October 11th. Refreshments will be served and dancing and card playing after the meeting. A good time is assured. Part of the program is as follows: Roll call (Something of Clumbus.) Reading by Mrs. A. J. Davis and by Berenice Hosley. Topic for discussion: How can we bring the farmers and business men closer together? Reading by Mrs. M. Botsford and Miss Hazel Crossman. Music by Mrs. Gilmore and by the Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fowler, Miss Ruth Walker and Hon. J. W. Fowler were in West Lebanon over the week end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fowler and family. They went down in Miss Walker's Super-Six Hudson.

Miss Chas. A. Pierce of Waltham, Mass., has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. M. W. Utley and family.

Miss Ernie Benson and Lewis Nelson have left and are attending U. V. M. at Burlington. These two were the honor students winning the U. V. M. scholarships from Burr and Burton Seminary this year.

WILSON CANNOT SHIELD
HIMSELF BEHIND DANIELS

Authentic Proof That Americans in Peril Were Deserted by Their Own Government Against the Protest of the Senior Naval Officer Present Most Pusillanimous Episode in the Naval Annals of Our Country.

Theodore Roosevelt in a letter to Henry Reuter, the naval critic, criticizes President Wilson and Secretary Daniels in connection with the Tampico affair, when the American warships were withdrawn by order of the Administration. The colonel says:

"You have presented authentic proof of how the Americans in peril at Tampico were deserted by their own government against the protest of the senior American naval officer present. You have shown that the government at Washington had full knowledge of the danger of the situation through telegrams from Admiral Mayo sent by wireless to the navy department on April 11, 12 and 13. You also give the telegram of Mr. Daniels of April 20 directing the admiral to proceed to Vera Cruz.

Mayo Feared Loss of Life.
"You have shown that Admiral Mayo made an emphatic protest to the navy department, stating that he feared the result of the squadron's leaving would be the loss of American lives and property. You also quote the telegrams sent by Admiral Mayo the following day, containing the protest of the American consul, Mr. Miller, and requesting authority to remain at Tampico. You have shown that, nevertheless, the navy department on the 21st confirmed its previous orders and directed the ships to leave at once.

"You have shown that the admiral put out into the ocean eight miles distant, but received a protest from Consul Miller reiterating his demand for protection. You then quote the telegrams and signals of Admiral Mayo, who, in spite of his orders, nobly refused to run from the post of duty while the lives of American men, women and children were in danger."

Can't Hide Behind Daniels.
Of the President and Secretary Daniels the colonel writes:

"President Wilson cannot shield himself behind Mr. Daniels, for Mr. Daniels could do nothing that the president does not order or sanction. When Mr. Daniels' actions have been brought to the attention of Mr. Wilson, and are not repudiated by him, they become Mr. Wilson's; and Mr. Wilson is fully and completely responsible for Mr. Daniels, for all that he has done and left undone.

"The proof is absolute that when Admiral Mayo was at Tampico he had received full knowledge of the rioting and of the imminent danger to American lives; but that, nevertheless, he steamed away into the ocean, and that the Americans were rescued by German and British ships. This action constituted so grave an offense from the standpoint of national duty and self-respect, that any man responsible for it should be at once taken out of office.

Facts Made Public In U. S.

"Shortly thereafter the facts were made public in the United States. If Admiral Mayo had been responsible and had not acted under orders, then the only proper course for Secretary Daniels would have been to order his instant court-martial, and in such case the failure to do so would have shifted the blame at once from the shoulders of Admiral Mayo to the shoulders of superiors, President Wilson and Secretary Daniels.

"Therefore, even if these telegrams did not exist, even if there had been no such orders, or those actually issued by the secretary of the navy to Admiral Mayo, nevertheless his superiors, Secretary Daniels and President Wilson, would both have become fully responsible for the guilty transaction by their acquiescence therein. They cannot, as they have sought to do, shift the blame to the shoulders of the admiral."

The Soldier Vote.

A significant feature following the Maine election was the nature of the soldier vote.

It is reported that one Maine battalion hiked sixty miles in two days for the purpose of exercising the franchise.

And we know how they voted!

Latin politeness is proverbial, but aren't these Mexican commissioners exceeding the limit when they persist in likening Woodrow Wilson to Venustiano Carranza?

Josephus Daniels might have made a passable secretary of the Salvation Navy, but it was pretty rough to impose him on Uncle Sam's fighting navy.

Give Numbers
Clearly

"SEVNATEFISIX."

Everyone realizes the possibilities of error in telephoning when 7856 is asked for in that way.

When numbers are given to our operators in that disconnected, hurried or otherwise indistinct fashion, it is likely that there will be an error and a wrong connection made.

There is an absolute necessity for the clear enunciation of all telephone numbers: the operation of our switchboards is directed wholly by numbers. A wrong number or a misunderstood number invariably means an error call, for which our operators should not be held responsible.

"Sev-en eight fi-ve six" is the better way to give the above number. Clearly pronounced numbers uttered directly into the telephone transmitter will obviate a majority of error calls.

When you have given a number to our operator, she repeats it. You should listen for that repetition, for then you may correct her if she has misunderstood you. That will save a great deal of delay and trouble; and, if you will also say "Yes" or "That's right," if she repeats properly, she will have your assurance that she is doing her work correctly.
